

明治22年、旧松山藩領の北黒田村・浜村・筒井村の3村と大洲藩領の南黒田村が合併して「松前村」となり、大正11年に町制を施行。さらにこの旧松前町と北伊予村・岡田村の3町村が合併し、昭和30年3月31日、現在の「松前町」が誕生しました。以来約半世紀にわたって、恵まれた土壌と資源、企業団地や住宅団地、大型商業施設の進出、四国縦貫自動車道伊予インターチェンジから本町臨海部を通して松山空港・松山港を結ぶ地域高規格道路伊予・松山港連絡道路の整備も具体化され、「水と緑の美しい自然環境の調和のとれたまちづくり」へと、さらなる発展を遂げようとしています。21世紀という新世紀、私たちの町「松前町」は「翔け まさき 新世紀プラン」のメッセージテーマのもと、誇りと希望をもって「人とみどりが輝くぬくもりの町 松前」へ邁進していきます。

In 1889 Kitakuroda, Hama, and Tsutsui, the former villages of Matsuyama feudal domains, and Minamikuroda which belonged to the Ozu feudal domains merged into "Masaki Village." On March 31, 1955, the former Masaki, Kitaiyo, and Okada Villages combined into the present "Masaki Town." In the half century since then, Utilizing its blessed soil and resources, Masaki Town has been developing as "a harmonized town with a beautiful natural environment of water and greenery," by completing business and residential complexes, advancing commercial facilities, promoting high standard roads connecting Shikoku Highway Iyo Interchange between Matsuyama Airport and Matsuyama Port. In the 21st century, Masaki Town will strive to promote "Masaki, the warm-hearted town with shining people and greenery," under the message theme of "Take flight Masaki! New century plan."

[地勢] 東経／132°42'51" 北緯／33°47'00" 面積／20.32
 道後平野の南部を占め、北は松山市、南は伊予市に隣接、西はおだやかな瀬戸内海に面します。土地はおおむね平坦で松山市との境には石鎚山系に端を発した一級河川重信川が流れています。気候は、瀬戸内式気候に属し温暖で、人情味豊かな住民性を育んできました。

Topography

Masaki Town is located at Long. 132°42'51"E, Lat.33°47'00"N. with an area of 20.32. It is in the southern part of Dogo Plain, borders with Matsuyama City in the north, and faces the calm Seto Inland Sea in the west. The land is generally flat and the Shigenobu River, a first class river originating from the Ishizuchi Mountains, flows in the town bordering with Matsuyama City. Since Masaki Town belongs to the Seto Inland Sea Climate Zone, it has a mild climate and has nurtured rich human character among its citizens.